SUMMER SAFETY TIPS

When most children are out of school and on break, summer brings endless hours of sun and fun. Yet it's also an opportunity for both small and serious injuries — from playground falls to drowning. Here are some safety tips that will help keep your child's summer a safe one.

- Never leave children unattended in or near the water. Use U.S. Coast Guard approved life vests, also known as personal flotation devices (PFDs), on boats, docks, and around deep or swift water. Have adults take turns as "designated child watchers" at parties or family gatherings.
- Make sure children always wear a helmet when rollerblading, skateboarding or riding a bicycle or scooter.
- Protect children from excessive exposure to sun – especially from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. Use a sunscreen with a Sun Protection Factor (SPF) of 15 or higher. Do not apply sunscreen to children under six months of age.
- Supervise children whenever they use play equipment. For example, make sure children stay clear of the front and back of swings while in use.
- Keep children away from areas where any lawn mowers are being used. Never allow children to ride on mowers.
- Minimize the risk of bee and insect stings by having children wear shoes and light-colored clothing. Use insect repellent sparingly on children and never on infants.
- Know the plants in your yard and teach your child not to pick or eat anything without first checking with an adult. Call the National Capital Poison Center Hotline at 1-800-222-1222 if you suspect a poisoning has occurred or to receive a list of poisonous plants.
- Keep children from playing near barbecues and bonfires and always have a fire extinguisher or at least 16 quarts of water close by in case of fire. Only adults should use lighter fluid.
- Strap children in a properly fitting seat belt, car seat or booster seat when traveling by car or airplane. Doctors and safety experts recommend that children ride in booster seats until they are about 4 feet 9 inches tall.

VIRGINIA'S CHILD RESTRAINT DEVICE LAW (Code of Virginia Article 13 - Section 46.2)

The major requirements of Virginia's Child Safety Seat Law:

- Effective July 1, 2002: Child restraint devices are required for children through the age of five. Safety seats must be properly used and approved by Department of Transportation standards.
- Children ages 6 through 15 must be properly secured in an approved safety seat, booster seat or safety belt no matter where the child is seated in the vehicle.
- The law applies to anyone (e.g., parents, grandparents, babysitters, friends) who provides transportation for a child in any vehicle manufactured after January 1, 1968.
- Public transportation (taxis, buses), regulation school buses, and farm vehicles are exempted.
- The child restraint law is primary enforcement — no other violation need be committed prior to ticketing for failure to have a child in an approved seat.
- Effective July 1, 2002: A $50 civil penalty fine is imposed for failure to have a child in a child restraint device. A $20 civil penalty fine is assessed when persons transporting a child exempted from this law due to medical reasons do not carry a written statement of the exemption. All fines collected go into a special fund to purchase safety seats for low-income families.
- There are assistance programs for low-income residents who cannot afford a safety seat. Contact Virginia Department of Health, Center for Injury and Violence Prevention at 1-800-732-8333 for more information.

HOME ALONE SAFETY RULES FOR YOUR CHILD

Leaving a child unsupervised at home is an important decision for families. Before allowing your child to stay home alone, refer to the Fairfax County Child Supervision Guidelines (on page 6 of this booklet) for clarification regarding the appropriate age and length of time a child can be left alone. The next step is for parents to create a safety plan with their children.

First, talk with your child about staying home alone:

- Help your child understand why you cannot be present.
- Speak openly with your child about his/her feelings and encourage him/her to share concerns.
- Make certain that your child always has a way to contact you, a close friend, relative or neighbor.
- Create clear home-alone rules and guidelines with your child, and then review them until your child seems comfortable.

Suggestions for creating a safe home for children home alone:

- Remove accident hot-spots and fire hazards.
- Ensure that appliances and smoke detectors are in good working order.
- Teach your children how to operate door locks and security systems.
- Prepare a first aid kit and teach your child how to use it.
- Make certain your child knows how to use the telephone and whom to call in an emergency.
- Post emergency phone numbers next to all phones in your home.

Now that your home is safe, here are some safety rules for your child:

- Create a backup plan for your child if he/she should lose the house key.
- Teach your child to notice if anything does not seem right...such as an open door or broken window...and tell your child not to go into the house.
- Teach your child to remove the key from the lock when entering the house, and then to lock the door behind him/her.
- Familiarize your child with family rules about who — if anyone — to let into the house when home alone and how to handle unexpected visitors or callers.
- Help your child create ways to play alone safely. Provide books, paper, or age-appropriate and safe craft projects.

CHILD SUPERVISION GUIDELINES

These guidelines have been developed by social work professionals in collaboration with the community. THEY ARE GUIDELINES ONLY. There may be situations, even within these guidelines, when it is not safe to leave a child unsupervised. Parents are ultimately responsible for making decisions about their child's safety.

Whenever any child is unsupervised/unattended the following should apply:

- There must be no emotional, medical, or behavioral problems which affect judgment or decision-making skills.
- Child must be comfortable being alone.
- Youth must have a safety plan worked out with the parent/caretaker, which includes:
 1. How to access parent or other responsible adult at all times (including knowing the parent/caretaker's whereabouts and having a telephone number where parent can be reached).
 2. What to do in case of emergency.
 3. Guidelines for acceptable behavior.
 4. Knowledge of emergency telephone numbers.
- Youth must demonstrate the ability to follow the safety plan and to make decisions that reflect concern for personal safety.

SUPERVISION GUIDELINES

- 7 years & under: Should not be left alone for any period of time. This includes leaving children unattended in cars, playgrounds, and backyards. The determining consideration would be the dangers in the environment and the ability of the caretaker to intervene.
- 8 to 10 years: Should not be left alone for more than 1½ hours and only during daylight and early evening hours.
- 11 to 12 years: May be left alone for up to 3 hours but not late at night or in circumstances requiring inappropriate responsibility.
- 13 to 15 years: May be left unsupervised, but not overnight.
- 16 to 17 years: May be left unsupervised, and in some cases, for up to two consecutive overnight periods.

GUÍAS PARA LA SUPERVISIÓN DE LOS NIÑOS

(Child Supervision Guidelines - Spanish)

Las siguientes representan reglas mínimas para la supervisión de los niños. Estas guías han sido desarrolladas por profesionales de trabajo social en colaboración con la comunidad. Recuerde, estas son solamente guías. Pueden haber situaciones, aún dentro de estas guías, en las que no es seguro dejar a un niño sin supervisión. Por lo tanto, los padres tienen la responsabilidad final en la toma de decisiones con respecto a la seguridad de sus hijos.

El siguiente criterio se deberá aplicar para dejar a un niño solo, sin supervisión:

- Los niños no deben tener problemas de conducta, problemas emocionales o médicos que afecten su juicio para tomar decisiones.
- El niño debe sentirse cómodo al quedarse solo.
- Los menores deben tener un plan de seguridad desarrollado con los padres o cuidadores, que incluya:
 1. Cómo comunicarse con los padres u otro adulto responsable en todo momento, (incluyendo la dirección dónde están, y tener un número telefónico donde puedan comunicarse con los padres).
 2. Saber qué hacer en caso de emergencia.
 3. Guías de conducta aceptable.
 4. Conocimiento de números telefónicos de emergencia.
- Los menores deben demostrar la habilidad de seguir el plan de seguridad y de tomar decisiones que reflejen su preocupación por la seguridad personal.

GUÍAS PARA LA SUPERVISIÓN DE LOS NIÑOS

Menor de, y hasta los 7 años:

No se deben dejar solos en ningún momento. Esto incluye el dejar a los niños solos, en los autos, en las áreas de juego, o en el patio. Se deben considerar los peligros del lugar y la habilidad del adulto para intervenir.

8 a 10 años: Solamente se les puede dejar solos por una hora y media durante el día y en la noche.

11 a 12 años: Se los puede dejar solos hasta 3 horas, pero no tarde en la noche o en circunstancias que requieran responsabilidad que no está al alcance de ellos.

13 a 15 años: Se los puede dejar sin supervisión, pero no por toda la noche.

16 a 17 años: Se los puede dejar sin supervisión (en algunos casos, hasta dos noches completas).

GUIDELINES FOR SELECTING A BABYSITTER

These guidelines have been developed by social work professionals in collaboration with members of the community. They represent minimally acceptable standards for selecting a responsible babysitter. Remember, these are guidelines only. There may be some situations, even within these guidelines, when it may not be safe to leave a child with a babysitter. Parents are ultimately responsible for making decisions about their child's safety.

Major Considerations:

- Generally, age 13 is the minimum recommended age for a babysitter. In making decisions about who is an acceptable babysitter, consider not only age, but also maturity.
- The physical environment where the babysitting will take place must be safe.
- The sitter must possess a level of maturity necessary for applying solid judgment and decision-making skills. There must be no emotional, medical, or behavioral problems affecting this ability.
- The length of time, the number of hours, the age and number of children, and the time of day must be consistent with the sitter's age and ability.
- As the age and level of maturity of the sitter increases, so can the level of responsibility. This includes performing specialized tasks such as getting kids ready for bed, preparing food and taking care of other specific needs.
- The sitter, depending on age, should have access to a responsible adult who can offer assistance if necessary.
- The sitter must know how and when to get help and have a safety plan for what to do in an emergency.

Other Considerations:

- Is the sitter comfortable around children?
- Does the sitter possess basic childcare skills?
- Does the sitter show a responsible attitude?
- Could the sitter respond to any special medical needs your child may have?
- Does the sitter have experience with children?
- Does the sitter know basic first aid and CPR?
- Has the sitter demonstrated responsible behavior in the past?
- Does the sitter have references? Have you checked them out?

Go for a bike ride • Go to the zoo • Hand paint rocks

SUMMER is here ...

Before leaving your children with a sitter, have you ...

- Informed the sitter of your family's safety plan for emergency situations and ensured that the sitter is able to carry out the plan?
- Made your expectations for food preparation and bathing realistic?
- Left a place and phone number where you can be reached?
- Reminded the sitter to limit personal phone calls and not allow visitors into the home?

Many hospitals, health care agencies, youth groups, community service groups and the American Red Cross provide classes for potential babysitters.

Consistent with the Fairfax County Child Supervision Guidelines, no child under 16 years old should be left alone overnight. It is recommended that overnight sitters be 18 years or older.

Fairfax County recommends children be at least 13 years old before babysitting.

Sugerencias para Seleccionar una Niñera

Guidelines for Selecting a Babysitter (Spanish)

Las siguientes sugerencias han sido elaboradas por trabajadores sociales profesionales en colaboración con miembros de la comunidad, y representan los criterios mínimos que deben tomarse en cuenta a la hora de seleccionar a una niñera responsable. Recuerde que éstas son solo sugerencias. Puede haber situaciones en que, aunque se cumpla con estos criterios, no sea seguro dejar a un niño al cuidado de una niñera. Son los padres quienes siempre tienen la responsabilidad final en toda decisión acerca de la seguridad de sus hijos.

Puntos principales

- Por lo general, 13 años es la edad mínima recomendada para una niñera. Al tomar decisiones sobre quién puede ser una buena niñera, tenga en cuenta no sólo su edad, sino también su madurez.
- El lugar en el que se vaya a supervisar al niño debe estar libre de peligros.
- La niñera debe poseer la madurez necesaria para ejercer buen juicio al tomar decisiones. No debe tener problemas emocionales, médicos ni de comportamiento que afecten dicha capacidad.
- El tiempo que Ud. piensa estar ausente, el número de niños y sus edades, así como la hora del día, deben ajustarse a la edad y capacidad de la niñera. Cuanto mayor y más madura sea la persona, mayor responsabilidad se le puede confiar.
- La niñera, dependiendo de su edad, debería tener acceso a un adulto responsable capaz de brindarle ayuda si fuera necesario.
- La niñera debe saber cómo y cuándo solicitar ayuda y contar con un plan de seguridad que le indique qué hacer en casos de emergencia.

Otros criterios

La persona ¿se siente a gusto con los niños?	¿Tiene experiencia trabajando con niños?
¿Tiene la capacidad y habilidad básica para cuidar de los niños?	¿Posee conocimientos básicos de primeros auxilios y de reanimación cardiopulmonar?
¿Muestra una actitud responsable?	¿Ha demostrado tener una conducta responsable en el pasado?
¿Tendría la capacidad de responder a las necesidades médicas que pueda presentar su hijo?	¿Tiene referencias? ¿Ha chequeado sus referencias?

Antes de dejar a sus hijos al cuidado de una niñera, ¿se aseguró de...

- informarle del plan de seguridad de la familia para situaciones de emergencia y asegurarse de que sea capaz de aplicarlo?
- ser realista en sus exigencias con respecto a la preparación de alimentos y el baño de los niños?
- dejarle una dirección y un número de teléfono donde localizarlo?
- recordarle que limite sus llamadas telefónicas personales y no permita visitas en casa?

Muchos hospitales, organismos de atención médica, grupos juveniles, grupos de servicio comunitarios y la Cruz Roja de los Estados Unidos dictan cursos de supervisión de niños. De conformidad con las sugerencias de supervisión de niños del Condado de Fairfax, no debe dejarse sola de un día para otro a ninguna persona menor de 16 años. Se recomienda que quienes cuiden niños de un día para otro tengan 18 años de edad como mínimo.

Contact Anne Harrison, anne@childsafenet.org to plan a ChildSafeNet program. Also ask about ChildSafeNet's "Child Safety Corner" articles for your community newsletters.

Parents and kids should go over these Quick Tips together and regularly discuss the importance of each rule. Keep them in mind and post them near your computer and around the house as regular reminders.

Safety Online

- Keep All Personal Identification Information Private. People on the Internet may not be who they seem. When you give out your name, address, phone number, school or other personal information you have no control over who it goes to.
- Never Ever Agree to Get Together with Someone New You "Meet" on the Internet. If anyone suggests this, tell your parents or a trusted adult immediately.
- Never Respond to Email, Chat Room or Other Messages that Make You Uncomfortable in Any Way. Trust your instincts and tell a parent or other trusted adult immediately if you get inappropriate Internet messages.
- Set Good Ground Rules for Safe Use of the Internet. Parents and kids should set the right rules together! Visit ChildSafeNet's Web site, www.childsafenet.org for good Internet safety tips and for Internet blocking and filtering software.

WATCH THE HEAT!

Children should never be left alone inside a car, even for a few minutes.

Many parents mistakenly think they can leave a child in a vehicle while running a “quick” errand. Unfortunately, a delay of just a few minutes can lead to tragedy. Heat is much more dangerous to children than it is to adults. In a hot vehicle, a young child’s core temperature can increase three to five times faster than that of an adult, causing permanent injury or death.

When the outside temperature is 93° F, even with a window cracked, the temperature inside a car can reach 125° F in just 20 minutes and approximately 140° F in 40 minutes.

Safety in Your Driveway

While parked in a driveway, your car can be especially hazardous. Unlocked cars pose serious risks to children who are naturally curious and often lack fear. Once they crawl in, young children don’t have the developmental capability to get out.

The National SAFE KIDS Campaign warns parents to be especially vigilant about their children’s safety on days when the temperature is 80 degrees or higher. Prevent heat-related injuries in cars by taking the following safety precautions:

- Never leave your child in an unattended car, even with the windows down.
- Teach children not to play in or around cars.
- Always lock car doors and trunks even at home.
- Be wary of child-resistant locks. Teach older children how to disable the driver’s door locks if they unintentionally become entrapped in a motor vehicle.
- Check to make sure all children leave the vehicle when you reach your destination.
- Don’t overlook sleeping infants.
- Watch children closely around cars, particularly when loading and unloading.
- Make sure you check the temperature of the car seat’s surface and safety belt buckles before restraining your child in the car.
- Use a light covering to shade the seat of your parked car. Consider using windshield shades in front and back windows.

Come out and jam to the sounds of a DJ, join in a center's field trip, go camping or head to one of the theme parks — King's Dominion or Six Flags. Increase your computer skills or surf the Internet. Most centers have music, billiards in the game room, computers, pick-up basketball, light snacks, and more. Call 703-324-TEEN (8336), TTY 703-222-9693 to find the center nearest you, or visit the Web site at www.fairfaxcounty.gov/REC/Teens/Teen_Main_Pg.htm.
